

You, the FCC, are once agin meddling in policy making. Get out of New Jersey's business. We, the residents of New Jersey will decide who we want to call us. I thought you folks were supposed be opposed to unnecessary regulation, or is that only when it is helpful to your bosses, i.e., Big Business and big money. Our do not call list is our own. Butt out.